REAL ESTATE ETHICS

Assignment

You are required to access a published real estate industry prosecution where consumer protection requirements were breached.

You have been provided with four such cases on realplace - you should choose one for this assessment.

Read the media release, research the case, then provide the following:

A description of the unethical practice

An explanation of how the unethical practice relates to consumer protection requirements

An explanation of real estate ethical standards and the Code of Conduct as they relate to the prosecution, including those that could have been applied and would demonstrate ethical practice
